

ENGLISH ENRICHMENT WEEK 2022 18-23 APRIL CLASSES IV-X

Every year JKPS celebrates English Enrichment Week, with the objective to enhance the language proficiency of our young scholars. It provides a good platform for developing communication skills.

English Week this year was conducted from 18–23 April 2022. Several activities were conducted to enhance the confidence and competence of the students. The students participated with great zeal and enthusiasm.

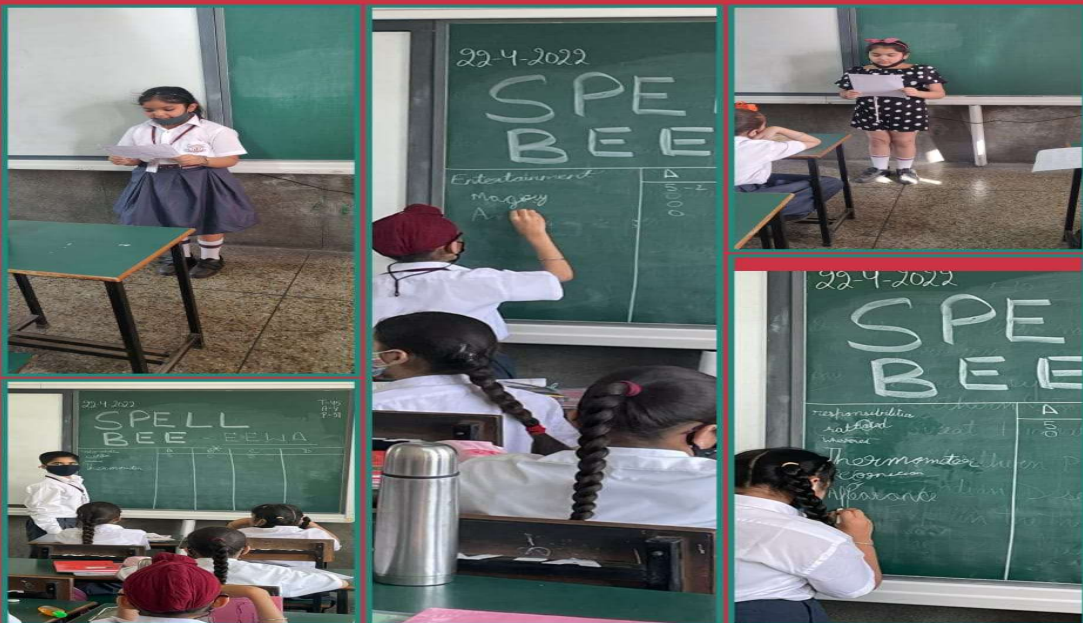

CLASS IV

ACTIVITY I: SPELL IT RIGHT

This activity was one of the numerous enjoyable things that give students a platform to learn spellings in different ways. It helped them improve their spellings, increase their vocabulary, learn concepts, and develop the use of correct English.

ACTIVITY II: READER'S THEATRE

The reader's theatre strategy blends students' desire to perform with their need for oral reading practice. Reader's Theatre activity was an entertaining and engaging means of improving fluency and enhancing comprehension

TEACHER COORDINATOR: Ms. PRIYA TANDON

CLASS V

ACTIVITY I: FOLKLORE FUN

One of the best things about folklore and fairy tales is that the best fantasy is what you find right around the corner, in this world. That's where the old stuff came from. Students in this activity enacted folk tales with a humorous endings.

ACTIVITY II: TWIST AND TWIRL

Fairy tales become current and relevant by recreating classic stories with self-sufficient princesses who don't need to be rescued, wicked queens who aren't who they appear, and kids who outwit witches and wolves. Students of Class V put on their thinking caps, got witty, and recreated a fairy tale of their choice with a different ending.

TEACHER COORDINATOR: Ms. LALITA MOSES

CLASS VI

ACTIVITY I: POEM RECITATION

“Poetry is simply the most beautiful, impressive, and widely effective mode of saying things.”

To instill a love for poetry and develop recital skills in students, an English Poem Recitation activity was conducted for the students of Class VI. The students presented their poems on the given theme with proper voice modulation and appropriate pronunciation.

ACTIVITY II: BUDDING ADVERTISERS

Students in a group of three made an advertisement and presented it in front of the class. All of them participated enthusiastically and enjoyed the activity.

TEACHER COORDINATOR: Ms. SADHNA TANEJA

CLASS VII

ACTIVITY I: LINGUA ART

"Always be a poet, even in prose."

The young enthusiasts were expected to compose a poem about any concrete object and then inscribe it creatively on a sheet of paper cut in the shape of that object. This was an art-integrated activity.

ACTIVITY II: SPIN-A-YARN

"Inside each of us is a natural-born storyteller, waiting to be released."

To inculcate the art of narration, the students collaborated and brainstormed together to weave a tale based on the given prompts.

TEACHER COORDINATOR: Ms. SAKSHI SHARMA

CLASS VIII

ACTIVITY I: CREATIFY

Students created an advertisement in groups of two or three for the items given on the spot and were judged on their creativity, originality of ideas, expression, and delivery.

ACTIVITY II: COMIC-OWN

Students created their own comic strips for any episode from a novel/tale read and then presented them in front of their classmates. This was an art-integrated activity.

TEACHER COORDINATOR: Ms. N. RAJASHREE KALA

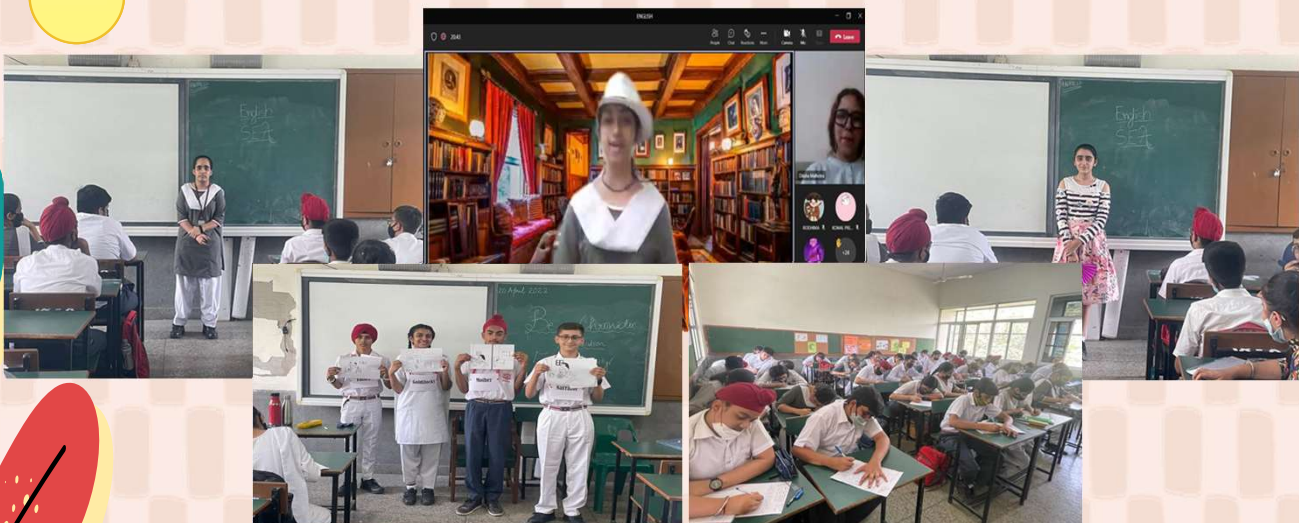

CLASS IX

ACTIVITY I: EXPRESSION FOR ACTION

In this activity, students dramatized their favourite characters from the great works of William Shakespeare and enacted their soliloquy/monologue using props and costumes according to the era and their act. The students of class IX unleashed their creative skills through this activity.

ACTIVITY II: BE A CHRONICLER

To enhance the confidence and creative writing skills of the students, JKPS organized a virtual English Story Telling activity 'Be a Chronicler' during the English Enrichment Week. The students were divided into six-seven groups, chose a fairy tale/folklore, analysed all the characters in the story, and rewrote them to fit the modern world. This activity sparked students' imagination and made them think more.

TEACHER COORDINATOR: DIKSHA MALHOTRA

CLASS X

ACTIVITY I: BE YOUR FAVOURITE CHARACTER

Students presented themselves as any of their favourite characters and met the unfamiliar crowd. Students used props according to the era and the act.

ACTIVITY II: TINY TALES

Students wove interesting and creative tales based on the given prompt/s on the spot. The students enthusiastically presented their tales with proper voice modulation.

TEACHER COORDINATOR: Ms. BHAWNA SHARMA

"Learning is a treasure that will follow its owner everywhere."
