

Book Week Report

“Reading can open your mind to brilliant new words and take you to new levels of English language learning”

To celebrate the joy of reading books, Jaspal Kaur Public School observed Book Week from 28 September to 1 October 2022. The Book Week commenced with the inauguration by the school Principal, Ms . Asha Saran Srivastava in the presence of the Head Mistress Ms. Shikha Dhameja along with the enthusiastic reading club students. The Principal encouraged the students to become avid readers and to explore these treasure houses of deep knowledge. A book fair was organized by Scholastic Pvt Ltd, where a wide range of books were displayed for students, teachers and parents as well. The book exhibition was highly appreciated by everyone, and overall it saw an overwhelming response from students and parents who had come to attend the PTM.

A lucky draw was also organized by the Scholastic group for book lovers. During the book week, many literary activities such as ‘My Favourite Book Character’, Graphic Presentation of a Book, Character-opinion Sheet, Crossword Puzzle on Authors & Books, and Letter to a Favourite Author were conducted to enhance the reading and creative skills among the students of all classes.

Another highlight of the week was the workshop – The Journey of a Book. The speaker for the event was Ms. Pritika (Senior Education Consultant at the Publishing House). The students were informed about the various steps involved in getting a book published.

To inculcate reading among the young readers D.E.A.R (Drop Everything and Read) was also observed by the entire school including the non-teaching staff, wherein everyone got involved in the activity of reading something of their interest.

‘Sharing Education, Sharing a Book That’s what changes the world.’ Book Sharing Drive was another highlight of the event. Students enthusiastically participated in this drive and gave their old books to underprivileged children.
