Discover the Wonders of Literature Book Reading Session

"Books are the best way to transport yourself to another world, to experience new things, and to learn new things." - Anne Rice

On August 29, 2024, the students of JKPS had the privilege of attending an enriching book reading session with Ms. Sutapa Basu, an award-winning author, poet, translator, educationist, and writing coach. This event offered a unique opportunity for students to delve into the world of literature and gain firsthand insights from a literary expert.

The session began with a warm welcome for Ms. Basu, who introduced herself by sharing her journey and experiences as a writer. To engage the students, she invited them to share their favourite books and authors, sparking an insightful discussion that set the tone for the rest of the event.

Ms. Basu captivated the audience with a reading from her book **Murder in the Jungle**, where a group of children used their detective skills to solve a mystery. The students were thoroughly engaged, asking thoughtful questions and drawing connections to their experiences. Ms. Basu also treated the students to brief readings from some of her other novels, further deepening their literary exposure.

The session concluded with an interactive Slogan Writing activity, where Ms. Basu guided the students through brainstorming ideas for their own stories and crafting catchy slogans. Her passion for writing and eagerness to share her expertise left a lasting impact on the students, who departed with newfound inspiration and a greater appreciation for the art of storytelling.

This book reading session was a memorable and inspiring experience for all, fostering creativity and a deeper understanding of the writing process.
