Report on HT PACE – LitFest Preview 2025

Venue: Jaspal Kaur Public School, Shalimar Bagh

Date: Monday, 29th September 2025

Time: 10:00 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.

Hindustan Times, under its HT PACE (Partnerships for Action in Education) initiative, organised the LitFest Preview 2025 at Jaspal Kaur Public School, Shalimar Bagh, as part of the run-up to the third edition of the HT LitFest 2025 to be held in November. The preview event aimed to offer students a glimpse into the world of literature, creativity, and performing arts through engaging sessions and workshops.

The programme featured two enriching sessions: a Storytelling Session and Rhythmshala – Rhythm & Beats Workshop — designed to inspire imagination, communication, and collaboration among students.

The Storytelling Session was conducted by Ms Simi Srivastava, a renowned storyteller, TEDx speaker, and founder of Kathashala. Using elements of theatre, puppetry, music, and movement, she captivated students from Grades V to VII through interactive narration and discussion. A written quiz followed the session, and winners will be felicitated at the main HT LitFest 2025.

The Rhythmshala Workshop was led by Mr Ankur Sharan, founder of the Rhythmshala initiative. Students from Grades VI to XII explored rhythm through body percussion and musical instruments such as the djembe, shakers, and other percussion tools. The lively rhythm circle encouraged creativity, coordination, and teamwork, while also celebrating the diversity of Indian and Western percussion styles.

HT PACE coordinated the event in partnership with the school. It received excellent participation and appreciation from both students and teachers. The sessions not only offered fun and learning but also emphasised the importance of creative expression and holistic education. The event will be featured in the HT Student Edition and on HT School's social media platforms.
