

The background is a vibrant, cartoonish illustration. At the top, a large, multi-colored rainbow arches across the sky. Several stylized clouds are scattered around; some are blue with smiling faces, and one is pink. In the bottom left corner, a boy with glasses is lying on a yellow slide, reading a book. Along the bottom edge, a group of diverse children are gathered, some holding open books. On the right side, a girl is walking up a yellow slide carrying a stack of books. In the bottom right corner, there are colorful alphabet blocks.
