Workshop Report: Empowering Educators for Transforming Classrooms

On May 22nd, 2025, Primary Plus News magazine organized a workshop for teachers at our school auditorium. The session, titled "The Empowered Educator for The Transforming Classrooms - using Voice, Story, and Self to engage and inspire!", was led by esteemed resource person Mrs. Shalini Tayal.

The workshop, attended by our dedicated teaching staff, focused on innovative approaches to classroom engagement and inspiration. Mrs. Tayal shared valuable insights on harnessing the power of voice, storytelling, and personal connection to create a transformative learning environment.

The interactive session provided teachers with practical strategies to enhance their teaching skills and foster a more engaging and inclusive classroom experience. The workshop was well-received, and participants left with new ideas and enthusiasm to implement in their teaching.
