

Pre-School Orientation 2022-23

To introduce the parents to the education and the value system of JKPS, a pre-school orientation programme was organized in the school auditorium on 29 March 2022. The program began with a divine Shabad. Thereafter, the school principal, Ms. Asha Saran Srivastava addressed the august gathering, and an exuberant welcome was extended to all the new members of the JKPS family. She emphasized effective communication between the parents and the facilitators. The objective of this orientation session was to create the foundation for a positive relationship between the parents and the school.

Ms. Neeru Aneja, the counsellor from Mata Jai Kaur Public School guided and counselled parents regarding the do's and don'ts of parenting. She emphasized on effective communication with children and spending quality time with them. Ms. Neeru also said that a happy child reflects good parenting. Ms. Subha Chandrashekhar, Founder- Director at ANUGRAHAM – Acceptance, Empathy, and Inclusion- guided the new parents to be instrumental in the growth of their children. She said that school is the second home of a child, and the child should learn to share be it the belongings or the teacher's attention. She further added that the parents and the school have one common goal and that is the holistic development of the children.

The school council members highlighted the achievements and accolades won by the school in the past year. The young cherubs of JKPS took us down the memory lane of the co-curricular activities and their kindergarten journey from 2021 to 2022. Students of JKPS performed on the beats of tabla and danced to the tunes of melodious songs that mesmerized the gathering. The audience gave a standing ovation to Raag Mala, a program that was an amalgamation of music and dance presented by the budding musicians and dancers of JKPS.

The facilitators of preschool were introduced to the parents. The Headmistress Ms. Shikha Dhameja in her address to the parents talked about the unique & continuous efforts being made by the school to make the teaching-learning process interesting and innovative. The session ended with the vote of thanks proposed by the headmistress.
