MAKING CHARACTER COUNT

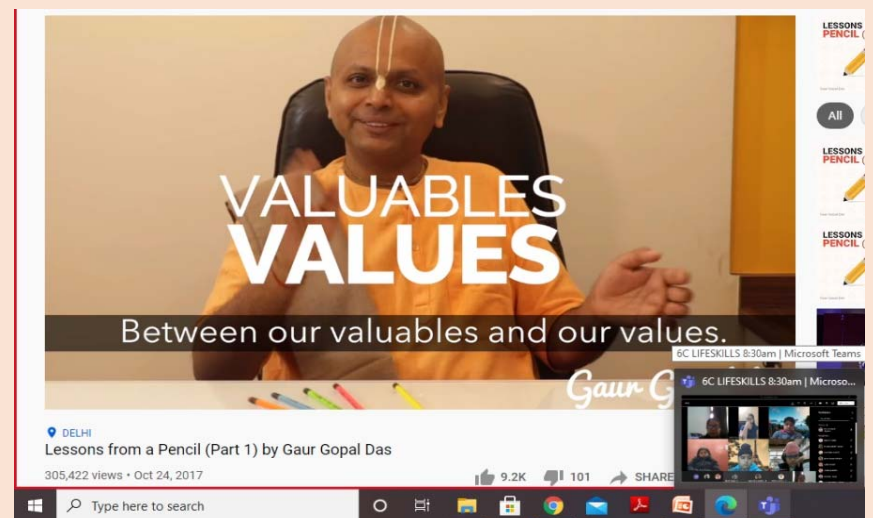

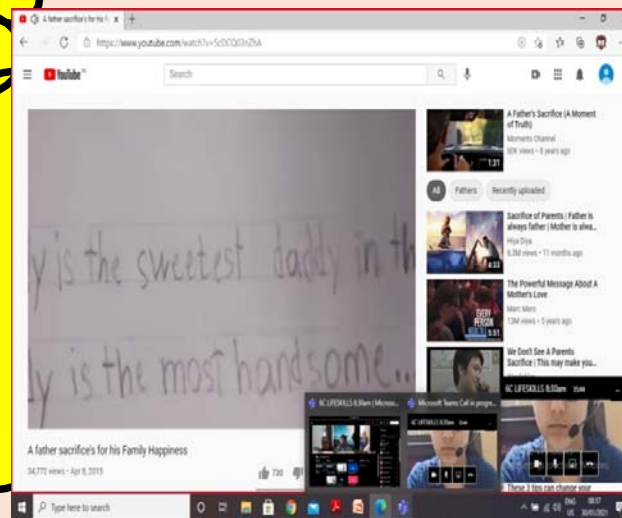

An individual's character is an amalgamation of his/her qualities which makes him unique and helps him/her stand apart from the rest. We want our students to build a repertoire of finest of values and virtues and awaken the awareness within. Today's assembly, Charisma of Good Character, was aimed at propelling the young enthusiasts by laying stress on how imperative it is to lay the foundation of a strong character in nurturing one's self and laying the cornerstone for a fulfilled life. Students were shown a glimpse of the world of virtues and importance of good character. This was followed by mentioning the noteworthy contribution made by the Padma Shri Awardees, common men and women who made service before self their motto and lead by example. Video links aimed at awakening the greatness within were also shared.
